Foreword

IN this day of rapid progress, so noteworthy an institution as the Reidsville High School should have recorded the history of its life. The Senior Class has, therefore, gathered together its activities, its thoughts, and its deeds, into this first volume of THE SOUVENIR, which it leaves, a lasting monument, for the future.

To Our Dear Friend
Mr. P. H. Gwynn, Jr.
Superintendent of our school,
whose loyalty and deep interest in our well-being has endeared him to us, this first volume of

The High School

HERE has been a wonderful growth in the Reidsville High School within the past three years. Since 1918-19 the enrollment alone has more than doubled. The present enrollment is 180, an increase of more than 90 students since 1918. In fact, the increase has been so rapid that the school is crowded for room in almost every department.

Not only has the School grown larger so far as numbers are concerned, but it has made long strides forward in other ways. In 1918 this school was but a three-year high school, not coming up to the State standard. Last session the course was raised to a standard four-year course and the School was listed upon the State accredited column. This year we attained a still higher standard and were notified last November that we had been accredited on the list of the Southern Accredited Schools of the Association of Southern Colleges. This is an enviable position, and one that we wish to maintain. But our physical equipment must increase also if we hope to stay in the Southern Accredited list.

The High School has taken on new life in its scholastic and literary being, also. Of an enrollment of 180 this session, ten students made the Honor Roll—a grade of "1," equivalent to between 95-100, is necessary to make this. The School re-entered the State Triangular Debate again this year for the first time in the last four years. Both the literary organizations among the boys and the girls are alive and showing a healthy interest in development along that line.

The attendance for the past half term has been exceptional. Thirty-five out of a total enrollment of 180 had a perfect attendance record for the fall session, having been neither absent nor tardy. The average attendance for the entire school was 93.3 per cent, or considerably above the average.

Not only has the School progressed in other lines, but it has improved its tone physically. It is now a recognized fact that every child ought to have supervised physical exercise. Although laboring under almost impossible conditions the High School has gone steadily forward in raising the standard of its athletics. With no basket-ball court fit to play upon, and with no equipment for athletics except such as the students themselves furnished, the High School has made a creditable record in her athletics this year and has become known throughout this part of the State as a clean, hard-playing, though often defeated, aggregation. A splendid spirit of coöperation has been shown by the School as a whole, and it is firmly believed that they will soon be given the privileges which so many other high schools enjoy in their athletic equipment.

Judging from the School at the present time there is every indication pointing to an even more successful spring term than the fall term. The Senior Class is bending every energy towards publishing an Annual, while the High School Chorus and Quartets, under the direction of Mrs. Womack, are planning to furnish all of their commencement music. The Boys' Band, with Mr. Parker leading it, has become better than ever. There was no Boys' Band in 1918. It has sixteen pieces this year and several more are training for it. May the progress be unimpeded.

FRANK BERNARD GILES

"BUCK"

Age 17. Height 6 ft. Weight 157.

"The elevator to success is not running. Take the stairs."

President Class (2, 4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4), President (4); Di Society (1, 2, 3), President and Vice-president (2); R. H. S. Senate, Pennsylvania (4); Varsity Baseball (2, 3, 4), Captain (3); Varsity Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4), Captain (4), Manager (2); Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3, 4), Captain (4), Manager (4); High School Quartette; Class Baseball; French Club; Tennis Club; Humorous Editor THE SOUVENIR; Voted Best-Looking Senior Boy.

"Buck" is the society man of our class. He loves the girls and they just will not let him alone. He is a good sport and when not with the girls he may be found on the basket-ball court. Frank has been a loyal member of the Class of '21, and we are expecting big things of him.

"Some think the world is made for fun and frolic, and so do I."

The Souvenir

ELSIE IRVIN BENSON

"DARLING"

Age 18. Height 5 ft. 3½ in. Weight 120.
"Be frank."

Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4),
Censor (4), Press Reporter (3); President Class (3); Treasurer (1); Editor-in-Chief THE SOUVENIR; Class Prophet
(4); French Club; Voted Sweetest Girl.

As Editor-in-Chief of THE SOUVENIR
Elsie has demonstrated her executive ability. Most of her time is spent in her school work, the rest with James.
Her work is always neat and her papers almost faultless. "Darling" has always wanted to be a domestic science teacher and we know she will make a good one.

"To know her is to love her."

The Souvenir

SUE CARTER

"SUDS"

Age 19. Height 5 ft. 6 in. Weight 145.

"Never put off until to-morrow what you can do to-day."

Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4),
Censor (3); Class Treasurer (3);
Voted Most Studious.

Some one had to keep up the dignity of our class so naturally this honor fell to "Suds." Although Sue has traveling for her highest ambition she is quiet and is an excellent cook and seamstress.

"Oh, why should life all labor be!"

The Souvenir

MAGGIE IRENE ELLINGTON

"RINIX"

Age 18. Height 5 ft. 3 in. Weight 102.

"Look for the best, get ready for the worst and take what God sends."

Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4);
Class Treasurer (4); Old Maids' Club;
Voted Biggest Flirt.

How is it that "Rinix" is a member of the Old Maids' Club and also the biggest flirt in the Class? At any rate, she gets up her lessons and keeps the numerous funds of the Class straight. She loves to read Latin, and is liked by all the students, as well as the Faculty.

"It pays to be happy."

The Souvenir

ELIZABETH MINTER HUBBARD

"FRECK"

Age 17. Height 5 ft. 5 in. Weight 125.

"Paddle your own canoe."

President Class (1), Historian (4); Athletic Association (4); Vice-President A. N. S. Club (4); Leap Year Club; Ukelele-Guitar Club (3); Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4); Voted Most Conceited; Honor Roll, 1920.

"Freck" is popular with both sexes. She is one of the brightest Seniors and one of the few in High School to get on the Honor Roll this year. She is a good musician and is our best exponent of the dance.

"Luck is spelled with a 'p'. The plucky person works instead of sitting idly by and wishing for success."

The Souvenir

MARTHA VIRGINIA JACOBS

"MICKEY"

Age 17. Height 5 ft. 9 in. Weight 150.

"Nothing venture, nothing gain."

Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain (3-4); Varsity Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4), Manager (3-4); Athletic Association (2, 3, 4); Tennis Club; Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4), President (4); Class Statistician; Leap Year Club; French Club; High School Quartet; Ukelele Club (3); Voted Best-Looking Girl.

We see that Martha is quite popular as a basket-ball player, and she deserves it. She has been a faithful member of the Basket-Ball Team for four years and, as a reward, has won a letter and two stars. She is full of fun and is a good student, even though she does mix her French and English.

"Happincss is a perfume you can not pour on others without getting a few drops on yourself."

The Souvenir

ETHEL VIRGINIA JONES

"Et"

Age 16. Height 5 ft. 4 in. Weight 123.

"The way to have a friend is to be one."

Class Basket-Ball (1); President French Club; Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4); Voted Most Influential; Class Poet.

"Et" is very poetical and quite a French student. She expects to have a home in "Normandy" some day. Ethel is equally good in other subjects and never fails to recite when called upon. She is liked by all the members of her class.

"What's the use of worryin'? It never was worth while."

The Souvenir

CHARLES LEONARD JONES

"RED"

Age 17. Height 5 ft. 7 in. Weight 120.

"Make the best of everything."

Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4), Secretary-Treasurer (4); Class Basket-Ball; Varsity Basket-Ball (4); Class Baseball (2); Varsity Baseball (3-4), Manager (4); Di Society (1, 2, 3), Treasurer (2), Censor (3); R. H. S. Senate, California (4); Tennis Club; Associate Editor THE SOUVENIR; Voted Biggest Bluff.

"Red" does not waste all his time in talking but when he does speak he says something worth while. Geometry is his hobby and he is not bad in Latin.

"A true friend and one you can depend upon."

The Souvenir

EMMA CARDWELL LIVELY

"CURLY"

Age 16. Height 5 ft. 3 in. Weight 127.

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Class Secretary (2); Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4); School Pianist (3); Voted Most Musical.

"Curly" is just as happy as her motto indicates. She is very musical and has often delighted us with her playing. "Duty before pleasure," another motto of Emma's, accounts for her good grades in music and in her studies.

*"The soul of music slumbers in the shell
Till waked and kindled by the master's spell."*

The Souvenir

CORA JEANETTE MACE

"JANET"

Age 17. Height 5 ft. 6½ in. Weight 110.

"Esse quam videre."

Class Basket-Ball (3-4); Varsity Sub. (3-4); Athletic Association (4); Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4); Associate Editor THE SOUVENIR; Voted Neatest.

The success of high school athletics is due to such girls as "Janet"—the scrubs. For three years Jeanette has worked in vain for her letter—but was it in vain? No, unless all worth-while things are in vain. Although Jeanette is quiet and inclined to be studious, she is liked by all the Class. She draws unusually well, as her art editorship herein proves.

"Nature I love, and next to nature, art."

The Souvenir

ALICE EMILY MARTIN

"SWEETIE"

Age 16. Height 5 ft. 3½ in. Weight 126.

*"Good, better, best, never let it rest,
Until the good is better, and the better, best."*

Class Basket-Ball (1, 2, 3, 4); Varsity Sub. (3-4); Tennis Club; Class Historian (1); Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4); Club Editor THE SOUVENIR; Voted Most Independent.

Alice is one of our athletic girls, being a star on the Senior team, and also an expert at serving well in tennis. You can tell by her motto that she is not a slacker. Alice always knows her lessons and gets a "1" on conduct.

"Her laugh is just like sunshine, it freshens all the day."

The Souvenir

EDWIN BURNS MIMS

"BEANS"

Age 17. Height 5 ft. 6½ in. Weight 135.

"Success comes only to those who work."

Class Basket-Ball (4); Class Baseball (2); Varsity Basket-Ball Squad (4); Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4); Tennis Club; Class Lawyer; Voted Best All-'Round.

With the exception of Frances, "Beans" is very indifferent to the fair sex. He is popular, however, throughout the school. Burns is one of our athletes, being a member of the Class Basket-Ball Team and on the Varsity squad. He is a member of the Tennis Club also.

"Love's fire heats water, water cools not love."

The Souvenir

MARY EDMUND MONTGOMERY

"REVEREND"

Age 17. Height 5 ft. 8½ in. Weight 103.

"Work while you work, play while you play."

Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4). President (3), Press Reporter (4), Secretary-Treasurer (1); President A. N. S. Club; Class Basket-Ball (4); Tennis Club; Leap Year Club; Athletic Association (4), Treasurer (4); Voted Most Popular.

Nothing could characterize "Reverend" better than her motto. Everybody likes Mary and her sweet disposition makes her very popular. She is one of our basket-ball-tennis players.

"Oh, what a pal was Mary!"

The Souvenir

SUSIE SOMERVILLE PENN

"WYN"

Age 17. Height 5 ft. 7½ in. Weight 119.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

Vice-President Class (4); Class Basket-Ball (4); Athletic Association (4); Irving Literary Society (2, 3, 4); Old Maids' Club; Associate Editor THE SOUVENIR; Voted Best All-'Round Girl.

We are very fortunate in having Susie in our class. She is always good at her lessons, but can have fun along with it. Susie was voted the best all-'round girl and that says enough.

"It's useless to argue against the inevitable. The only way to argue against an east wind is to put on an overcoat."

The Souvenir

MARY ETHEL PERKINS

"E. P."

Age 17. Height 5 ft. 2 in. Weight 105.

"My aim is to make each day a golden memory to those I serve."

President Old Maids' Club; Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4), President (4); State High School Triangular Debate (4); Voted Most Ambitious; Honor Roll, 1920.

Ethel is bright in all her studies and just can't help it. She is also on the Honor Roll this year. Math. is her favorite study, and she likes to balance equations in Chemistry Class.

"Beauty charms the eye but merit wins the soul."

The Souvenir

LOIS ELIZABETH PRICE

"HAM"

Age 17. Height 5 ft. 5 in. Weight 130.

"Love your fellowman."

Irving Literary Society (4); Athletic Association (4); Voted Laziest.

Lois has been in our class only this year but we think 'tis better late than never in her case. She says she does not have any ambition but she is mighty good on Chemistry.

"Pack up your troubles in your old kit bag and smile, smile, smile."

The Souvenir

OLA MAUSE ROBERTS

"MIKE"

Age 18. Height 5 ft. 4 in. Weight 102.

"A merry heart goes all the day."

Athletic Association (4); Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4); Secretary-Treasurer French Club; Voted Most Reliable.

Ola believes in saying what she thinks at any time and she always sees the bright side of everything. "Mike" never allows a good joke to pass unnoticed. She has become especially interested in the Boys' Basket-Ball Team this year.

"Good nature and good sense must ever join."

The Souvenir

JAMES LEE THOMPSON

"BUDDY"

Age 19. Height 5 ft. 6 in. Weight 158.

"Paddle your own canoe."

Varsity Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4); Captain (2); Varsity Basket-Ball (2, 3, 4), Captain (3); Class Basket-Ball (4); Class Baseball (2); Di Society (1, 2, 3), Treasurer (3); R. H. S. Senate, New York (4); Captain Tennis Club (2, 3, 4), President (4); French Club; Athletic Association (1, 2, 3, 4), Treasurer (3), Vice-President (4); Business Manager THE SOUVENIR; High School Quartet; Voted Most Popular Boy.

Is it any wonder "Buddy" is the most popular boy in the Senior Class? He is quite an athlete, having been on the Basket-Ball Team three years and on the Baseball Team four. He loves to argue and can always carry his point to the end.

"He who is his own friend is a friend to all men."

The Souvenir

MARION ADYLEEN TRENT

"ENA"

Age 15. Height 5 ft. 2 in. Weight 100.

*"Where joy and duty clash
Let duty go to smash."*

Class Treasurer (2); Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4); Voted Little But Loud.

Adyleen is the hobby of the Class and her highest ambition is to be tall, like "Suds." She never has much to say, but she is industrious and always does her work well.

"This is such a serious world that we should not speak at all unless we have something to say."

The Souvenir

FRANCES FULLER WOOTTON

"FRANK"

Age 18. Height 5 ft. 2 in. Weight 125.

"Let me live in a house by the side of the road and be a friend to man."

Irving Literary Society (1, 2, 3, 4),
Censor (4), Vice-President (3); Tennis
Club; Leap Year Club, President (4);
Athletic Association (2, 3, 4), President
(3 4); Class Basket-Ball Team (4);
Voted Most Attractive.

Frances is very fortunate, for she can always get up and say something without acquiring stage fright. She is another one of our athletes. Although Frances studies hard she can always find time to help in anything the Class undertakes.

"Fair as a star, when only one Burns in the sky."

Class History

BACK through the haze of history my mind searched in vain for a group of tiny children that one morning early in September started out in quest of knowledge. Try though I did, I seemed to see their faces but dimly, when all at once the familiar form of the Goddess of Learning stole into my presence. She sat down beside me and, in a reminiscent mood, began to speak:

"I remember the year of 1910-11, when I first began to know you. There were sixty in your class. When the call came for you to start on the road to Education, some came very slowly and timidly—Burns Mims and Elsie Benson, I believe.

"In 1911-12 Buster Giles became very prominent, standing for quite a while at the head of the spelling line. You know Buster, do you not? Can you imagine his heading the spelling line? Bertha McCollum and Binks Stockard also became famous that year, but their accomplishments lay in the writing of love notes.

"Irene Ellington joined you during 1912-13. Miss Ida Womack frequently fainted and turned the table over on you, causing much excitement.

"Miss Coats taught you in 1913-14. When you became acquainted with 'Reading, Riting, and Rithmetic,' Martha Jacobs was often heard singing, 'I don't care what teacher says, I can't do that sum.'

"In 1914-15 Mary Montgomery, James Thompson, Sue Carter, and Ethel Jones joined your 'merry gang.' Elsie Benson at once became interested in a 'certain' one of them. Many new things were taught you that session, and how important you felt when introduced to Lee, Jackson, and Lincoln.

"And now in 1915-16," said the Goddess of Learning, "there was quite an addition to your class when Ola Roberts, with her jesting disposition, came in 'to get you told.' Mary Montgomery and Alice Martin appeared unusually bright during that year, but the one shining light was always Charlie Jones.

"Miss Ida Fitzgerald taught you in 1916-17, but 'tis needless to remind you of that fact. Well do you remember the hours spent trying, in vain, to plaster and paper a room, analyze a sentence, and locate the most important cities in Africa. In spite of all this you marched on, your face towards the goal—High School.

The Souvenir

HIGH SCHOOL

"At last that great goal was reached and in 1917-18 you found yourselves holding that all-important title of Freshmen in High School. You generously shared this title with Frances Wootton, Jeannette Macé, Emma Cardwell Lively, and Adyleen Trent, who came in at that time to enjoy with you that wonderful period of sophistication which later proved to be one of ignorance.

"When you were greeted each morning by four teachers instead of one and introduced to such subjects as Latin, Science, and Algebra, you were painfully impressed with your lack of knowledge.

"You were privileged to have with you that first year a comrade whose face is missing now, one that you loved dearly and often think of. In September, 1917, Mary Evans Womack joined you. In May, 1918, God took her from you. A sweet and unselfish spirit she was, and the Class of '21 will always think of her with tenderest memories.

"Perhaps you remember 1918-19," the Goddess of Learning said, "the year when 'Flu' made its appearance, causing the doors of your school to be closed many times; your peace of mind was also disturbed by the constant change of teachers. However, not all of that year was unpleasant, for you soon found a teacher and true friend in Mr. P. H. Gwynn, Jr.

"Susie Penn became one of your class that year. Then what a wonderful time you had at the Junior-Senior banquet!

"Seniors! You thought you would be in 1919-20, but sad to relate another grade was added, making your road much longer to travel. Joining you along the way, Ethel Perkins made things much easier with you, for 'props' in geometry were to her like play.

"It was rumored around that two 'newly-weds' would be your teachers and, according to the report, it so happened, they being none other than Mr. and Mrs. Weatherly."

"And now," continued the Goddess of Learning, "1920-21 claims the honor of being the Golden Age of your history. Lois Price comes in to enjoy the 'rare' privileges of Seniors. During this year Frances Wootton becomes especially interested in Burns' works.

The Souvenir

"You should feel proud of the record made this last and best year. Not only do you stand foremost in attendance, but you also rank very high in scholarship.

"It was with pride that you congratulated your boys on winning the Loving-Cup in the Class Basket-Ball Tournament.

"In bidding you farewell I hereby declare the Class of '21 the smartest, best, and wisest class that has ever graduated."

As the Goddess of Learning slipped quietly away I was left alone to ponder out the meaning of it all.

Class Poem

Good-bye, dear old school days,
So full of task and pleasure,
On the walls of memory's halls
We'll hang thee as a treasure;
Thy gifts to us are dearer by far
Than the wealth of our Nation;
Aye, the world's pearls compareth not
In worth to an education.

But, now as we leave the schoolroom,
Don't think our task is done;
The building we planned is not complete—
But only just begun.
And on to heights of greater knowledge,
No further we'll e'er go,
Until once we've realized
Just how little we know.

Education is the right foundation;
But we'll find along life's way,
That the good old school of experience
Teaches us new things every day.
Then in these days of flowers and praise,
Let us not be vain;
And let's not boast, lest our page
Of accomplishment be stained.

Class Prophecy

NE bright day I was seized with an intense desire to see my old classmates. But how was I to see them? For not a word had I heard about these dear friends for ten years. I had tried to locate them by writing back to the dear old Reidsville High School, hoping at least some one would answer. Day after day passed, but no letter came. I then thought of the Oracle in Delphi that our Latin class so often referred to. It had helped the Grecians, why should it not help me? At last I had found a way to locate them.

Immediately I boarded a steamer, sailed directly towards France, then around the coast into the Mediterranean, until I reached the Grecian Peninsula.

I went at once to Phocis and to the beautiful Temple of Apollo. There it stood in all its simplicity, with incense steadily rising from the Oracle. But whom should I ask for first? I didn't need to think, for James Thompson at once flashed through my mind. I then called into the cavern depths, "I pray you, any information concerning James Thompson that you may have, please give it forth to me."

Then I heard a mumbling and a voice began to speak: "The young man of whom you inquire has become a noted chemist. He is now employed by the Government of the United States of America and is traveling in Greece at the present time. Before long you shall see him." Could it be true?

At that moment the heavy swing of doors caused me to turn and there stood James with the same smile he always wore in our school days. I told him at once how glad I was to see him and how I had come all this distance to find out any news regarding the Class of '21. Together we went back to the Oracle and asked for the President of our class, Frank Giles.

The same voice issued forth: "You will find Frank Giles in his accustomed seat at the café on Broadway, eating soup three times a day. Meanwhile he works out recipes for New Kinds of Soup whereby he means to make his fortune."

We wondered if Mary Montgomery also dined on Broadway and, therefore, asked the Oracle if we might find her there.

The Souvenir

The Oracle mumbled, "No. You will find Mary keeping house for Mr. Jack Wild in a small town in Texas."

The Oracle had answered us well thus far, and so we tried again. "Alice Martin," we called, "can you tell us where she is?"

We heard the echoes, "The Preacher! The Preacher! She is still looking for the Preacher," they seemed to say.

I turned to James and laughed. "The poor Preacher, hasn't he been found yet? Suppose we ask the Oracle for all the class?"

The Oracle heard us and in turn replied: "Irene Ellington has found her calling in being a missionary. She is not very far from this temple. Just beyond our borders in Persia she is converting the heathen."

"Elizabeth Hubbard has a beauty parlor in Greenwich Village where all the beauties vie with each other, after she has sufficiently painted them.

"Emma Cardwell Lively has lived up to the ambition of her school days. She is living in a flat, her sole companions a parrot and a cat.

"You have one member of your class, Ethel Jones, who has become renowned. She is the great American Poet who publishes her poems weekly in the Saturday Evening Post.

"Frances Wootten married only last week. Becoming restless in the United States she had traveled to South America; there presenting her traveler's check at the window of one of our National Banks, found Burns Mims, after an interval of ten years; since then her heart has been contented.

"Sue Carter you will find living up to her old reputation back in the Franklin Street School. A little group of children love to call her Miss Sue, their beloved teacher.

"Ethel Perkins is also following that profession, but she has become a renowned Latin teacher in the famous city of Stacey.

"One member of your class, Adyleen Trent, although quiet in her school days, has completely changed into a second Mrs. Jiggs.

"Ola Roberts looked enviously upon Adyleen and at once set out on her 'honeymoon' with Mr. T-See. They are now touring Leaksville.

"One of your members, Martha Jacobs, is helping to untangle the crooked affairs of the world. She has become a lawyer. Her sympathy for divorce cases brings people from all parts of the country. Thus her business is thriving.

The Souvenir

"Jeanette Mace, a second Mrs. Cunningham, annually travels to the schools in the interest of fire prevention. She has become an eloquent speaker, and loves to cite her first trip to Congress.

"Just recently Susie Penn bade farewell to her native shores to make her home in Hawaii for the sole purpose of having the Hawaiians sing and play.

"Charles Jones's ambition has taken him first to Congress and then into the Courts. The President has recently appointed him Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. (Classmates, if you get into trouble appeal to Charles Jones.)

"Lois Price, planning a trip for these many years, has finally completed her preparations. Her trunk has been filled with a new wardrobe. She has already purchased her ticket and is leaving on the nine o'clock Special for Pelham."

The Oracle, having performed its mission, was silent. How happy we were to hear all it had to say! We turned to leave the temple, well satisfied with our trip. There was only one desire that remained, and that was to see in reality the Class back in the Franklin Street School. Perhaps we shall some day.

The Last Will and Testament of the Senior Class

We, the Senior Class of 1921 of the Reidsville High School, in our right state of mind, do hereby will and bequeath, to wit:

SECTION I.

To Benton Pipkin, we will Mary Montgomery's front seat so that he will have sufficient room for his "FEET."

To Reginald Sprinkle, Frank Giles's seat in Tempie Harris's car, provided that he will use it as much as "Buck" has.

To Virginia Allen, Adyleen Trent's timidity, as we think it would be appropriate.

To Annie Harris, Martha Jacob's height.

To Bertha McCollum, the class mirror, provided she will not break it.

To Linda Stacy, Sue Carter's modesty.

To Lee Smith, Frances Wootton's surplus knowledge of Chemistry.

To Florence Burton, Emma Cardwell's curls, as we think it would improve her appearance.

To Lawrence Watt, James Thompson's place as forward on the Basket-Ball Team.

To Eddie Haygood, Charles Jones's place as guard on the Basket-Ball quint, provided he will keep up "Red's" pace.

To Edward Anderson, Elizabeth Hubbard's familiar rouge box.

To Ruby Smith, Charles Jones's nickname of "Fireworks."

To Guy Pettigrew, Frank Giles' laziness to use it to the advantage that "Buck" has.

To Lawrence Watt and Bertha McCollum, James Thompson's and Elsie Benson's seats, hoping that Lawrence will have the same success that James has had.

To Dora Walker, Ethel Jones's love and knowledge of Geometry.

SECTION II.

To the Junior Class we will our privileges, hoping that they will not be imaginary as ours have been. Also the Basket-Ball Cup, which will be theirs until they lose it.

To the Sophomore Boys' Class we will the privilege to disturb the School by singing whenever they wish; that is, if it is not too often.

To the Sophomore Girls' Class we will the pictures in the Senior room, provided they will hold on to them as we have.

To the Freshman Class we will the Sophomores' dignity and knowledge, hoping they will quiet down some time in the near future.

To the rising Freshman Class we will our class colors, Green and White, provided they will keep them winning colors as we have.

We, the aforesaid, do hereby declare and publish this our last will and testament, this the twenty-third day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty-one.

(Signed) SENIOR CLASS.

Class History

We remember, we remember,
That fall of eighteen,
We fifty little Freshmen,
Who were so grassy green,
Came tripping into High School,
And on that awful day,
We met the dreaded Faculty,
Who took our breath away.

We remember, we remember,
The picnic at Price's Mill,
When because of so much tire trouble
We had to walk up every hill;
That Sophomore year we were so wise,
Still all went fairly well,
Especially the Junior-Senior banquet,
Which we thought very swell.

We remember, we remember,
The class tournament we won,
And all our classmates cheered us
For the noble work we'd done;
When we yelled for Coach Stacy,
For our colors, Purple and Gold,
And we pledged ourselves that the next year
The same tale would be told.

We remember, we remember,
Those "highbrow" Seniors, all right,
The night we gave them a banquet,
Honoring Green and White.
We hate to see them leave us,
Saying "Au Revoir" to High,
Because we know that day to us
Is coming bye and bye.

We remember, we remember,
Those days ill-starred by fate,
When Mr. Gwynn scolded Mathewson
Because he came so late;
When Annie and Virginia were kept in,
When "flu" had closed our school,
And they made us come on Saturdays,
Which made us feel like fools.

Sketch of the Society

The Irving Literary Society was organized in the fall of 1914. It renewed its work this year with enthusiasm. Forty-two new members were initiated into the Society, new officers were elected each half year, and the various committees chosen.

The literary work taken up varied from the debating of worthy questions to a study of the lives and the works of great men, and the giving of short plays. The Society has afforded the opportunity of developing its members along literary and musical lines. This spring concludes the fifth session of the work of the Society.

MALCOLM MCBRYDE, Speaker

On October 21, 1921, there came into existence a new organization at the Reidsville High School. Instead of the old type of literary society there was substituted for it the full organization of a United States Senate, with all officers and requirements pertaining thereto.

There were thirty-eight members, each representing a state, a speaker, sergeant-at-arms, secretary, doorkeeper, and all the various committees seen in such an organization. All bills were referred to the Executive Committee, reported, discussed, and passed or rejected. Those passed were sent to the President for his approval or veto. The system has worked well thus far, and there has been much interest shown by a majority of the members. It has helped wonderfully in developing material for the State Triangular Debate and in teaching the boys to think and speak while on their feet.

The Season

Starting with an entirely new team and with two letter-men back, R. H. S. had a disastrous season considered from the standpoint of games won and lost. When examined from the fairer angle of lasting results, however, the work done by the squad was of a high order of excellence. "Clean Sportsmanship" was the motto.

With no really suitable place to practice and with no place at all after the middle of January to stage a game on the home court, the quint started out by losing to Oak Ridge, and winning from Burlington and Pomona. Thereafter, the remainder of the schedule was played away from home. In basket-ball this fact naturally gives the home team the advantage and this accounts for some of the severe defeats inflicted upon us.

A glance at the schedule and its results below will show that we met most of the best prep and high schools in the western part of the State. The entire squad was young and inexperienced and this can be realized from its erratic scores.

Chance and Thompson played well together at forward, with Sprinkle and L. Watt substituting. Giles and Miller were almost equally good as pivot men, with the experience of the former giving him a shade the better form. Delancey and Jones were the mainstays as guards, though Gladstone and Mims showed steady improvement. With this season as a foundation the team next year should go far and make quite a record.

GILES, Captain

The Souvenir

Chance was the largest individual scorer for the squad, with Giles and Thompson not far behind. Of the substitutes, Miller, Watt and Gladstone showed the greatest development.

Girls' Season

At the first call for Varsity practice every player that had formerly upheld the honor of R. H. S., as well as many new candidates, responded. All could not make the quint, so the number was eventually reduced to about twelve. Taking into account all the setbacks of the season it is considered a success. True, only three games were won out of the seven played but it must be remembered that six of those were played away from home.

The team also went to the semi-finals in the Western State Championship Series, defeating Burlington in a thrilling game in Greensboro, but losing out to Greensboro at Guilford College in a hard-fought contest.

The regulars were Florence Burton and Elizabeth Cardwell, forwards; Martha Jacobs, center; and Ruby Smith and Linda Stacy, guards. Nellie Bullard, Jeanette Mace, Eva Gray Somers and Alice Martin were substitutes. Martha Jacobs was the highest individual scorer, with 48 points.

Class Basket-Ball Series

A new interest in athletics was aroused the fall term of this year when, for the first time, a regular class series was arranged and strictly carried out. A silver loving-cup was presented to the class champions, this cup to be contested for from year to year. Any team that wins the cup for three years in succession shall become the permanent owner of the trophy. In case a Senior team possesses the cup at the time of its graduation, the trophy reverts to the School.

The contest this year was a long, close race between the Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors. The final tie was broken by the Sophs defeating the Juniors and the Seniors defeating the victorious second-year quint. The Seniors will hold the cup until graduation, when it shall revert to the School.

Regulars—ELIZABETH CARDWELL AND FLORENCE BURTON, Forwards; RUBY SMITH (Captain), Center; LINDA STACY AND CATHERINE GARDNER, Guards.

Subs.—ROSETTA TURNER, MARGARET HANCOCK.

Coach—MISS JANIE STACY.

An increased interest in basket-ball was shown among the girls this year. The class teams were organized early in the fall and after a full training period the interclass games were played. Although no prize was offered to the winner, the rivalry was intense. The series was not so close as the boys' interclass games, but nevertheless, much good work was done in developing a fine class spirit and good material for the Varsity quint. When the series ended it was found that the Juniors, Class of '22, had won the much-coveted honor.

1921 Baseball

With the close of the basket-ball season the boys have turned to baseball. The outlook so far is very encouraging. Although only four letter-men are back, an extra large squad, consisting of last year's seconds and several new candidates, have reported for practice. They are showing good form and Coach Gwynn will soon have lines on the ones who can "show the way" for an interesting and successful season. The schedule is now being arranged but the first game will not be played until the last of March.

HENRY

"He stokes the furnace—here below"

A SENIOR'S LEGACY

To Whom It May Concern: I cheerfully recommend my old girl to any undergraduate young man wanting a suitable dating companion for next year.

She is a good dancer physically and morally.

She is a good looker.

She is a good listener.

She is not too good.

She is an excellent pedestrian; in fact, she will always say that she likes to walk, although she is not prejudiced against a car.

She is a light eater except on Sunday and then it is advisable to eat table d'hôte.

She is a woman of deep emotions whom only YOU will be able to thrill.

She has, to the best of my knowledge, absolutely no ideas of her own on any subject, except you.

My sole and simple reason for quitting her is that I am leaving school. Treat her right—she likes to be treated.

Chemistry Prof.: "What will become of gold when left uncovered in the air?"

Bright Stude: "It will be stolen, sir."

DEFINITIONS

Freshmen—Proof of Darwin's Theory.

Clubs—What Maggie uses on Jiggs.

Music—What the Ninth Grade boys don't produce.

Exams—Something that happens every few days on which we open up our minds just to satisfy the curiosity of the Faculty.

Jokes—All of us.

Ideas—Something the Sophs.' heads are full of.

The Souvenir

Literature—Books full of words, sentences, paragraphs, etc., which are very elevating, interesting, and easy to understand. As I write this I shudder at the thought of the many happy hours I've spent with "Essays of Elia," "The DeCoverly Papers," etc.

Diploma—The result of eleven years' hard labor.

Geometry—Our most popular indoor sport.

Reports—A very unnecessary little slip of paper which causes much wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Exes—What these reports contain.

Mr. Parker (in physics class): "What is light?"

Student from back of room: "Feathers, sir."

He: "What is gold water?"

Him: "I don't know, why?"

He: "I saw in the paper, 'Gold water bonds for sale.'"

Lawyer No. 1 (to opponent): "You are the biggest boob in the city."

Judge (rapping for order): "Gentlemen, you forget I am here."

Father: "Why are you so far behind in your studies, my boy?"

Son: "So I may pursue them, father dear."

"Rastus, you sho' does remind me of an airy plane."

"Why, Dinah, how's that?"

"'Cause you ain't no 'count on earth."

He: "You used to say that there was something about me you liked."

She: "So I did, but you've spent it all."

"How is it that that man with those figures tattooed on him traveled so cheaply?"

"Oh, they charge only two cents for printed matter."

Mr. Parker (in science class, holding up his hat): "Let this represent the moon."

Gilbert: "Mr. Parker, is the moon inhabited?"

The Souvenir

"That's a fine-looking dog," said the friend. "Where does he sleep?"

"Oh, up in my room," said Dick.

"Don't you know that it isn't healthy to keep a dog in your room?" asked the friend.

"Oh, he's used to it now," answered Dick.

Mr. Parker: "Explain the phases of the moon."

C. Nance: "The faces of the moon are the man and woman."

Teacher (severely): "What will your father say to your low average?"

Youngster (with hesitation): "When dad sees I'm down to zero he'll warm me up, I guess."

Sign in garage: "Equip your liver with our cuckoo clock. When the blame thing reaches 20 miles an hour the bird comes out and sings, 'Nearer, My God to Thee.'"

Judge: "Where did the automobile hit you?"

Rastus: "Well, Judge, if I'd been carrying a license number it would have been busted into a thousand pieces."

Class of '21

Here's to the Class of '21,
With students so free and gay,
We say this, excepting none,
With morals high for future play.

We hope that none be offended
By the words herein contained,
For they're used through purely fun,
And they surely should remain.

'Tis the names which follow,
Of this dear Class so fine,
You may know them anyway,
But refresh them in your mind.

This class has in its possession
The finest teacher, without doubt,
This side the Mason Dixon Line,
To the R. H. S. we shout.

First, row one claims Miss Trent,
Miss Adyleen, you know,
Without her presence in the Class
Things surely would not go.

The girl with coal black hair,
The dame behind Miss Trent,
'Tis Miss Ethel Perkins we see,
Her mind in idleness ne'er is spent.

Surely we have next in hand
To her, Miss Ellington, Irene,
With a character spotless and clean,
As her manner is serene.

Now the weary tide must change,
To a boy poring there,
'Tis our friend, Edwin Burns Mims,
A friend with deceit so rare.

The Souvenir

We now look into the glowing eyes
Of a red-headed, joyous lad,
No other than Charles "Red" Jones,
He who is forever glad.

Let us look across the aisle,
Just over from "Red" Jones,
Miss Alice Martin, a helping hand
To her mates she freely loans.

Next on roll comes Miss Carter,
Sue, studious of the big four;
She always keeps a cool head,
While things are in a roar.

We must skip a vacant desk,
To Miss Emma Lively, Musician;
She rules alone a piano realm,
As Rome was by Patricians.

Let us skip another desk before
We recognize Miss Price;
Lois, "Pelham's Pride" we know,
She deserves the credit precise.

We're looking at Miss Elizabeth Hubbard,
When glancing across the aisle,
Who neatly dresses up to date,
To follow the fearful style.

Look, look just back one desk,
We spy Miss Susie Penn,
With best wishes for her future,
We directly to her send.

We're gazing at Miss Ethel Jones,
The poet of the grade,
With her skill and fluency of pen
Her future is certainly made.

Look! See poring over her books,
Back still another seat,
'Tis she, Miss Elsie Benson,
So faithful and so sweet.

The Souvenir

Then one seat further there is no other
Than our friend, Thompson, James,
Upon whose ability as Business Manager
Has this Annual won its fame.

Buster Giles is across the aisle,
The President of the Class;
For mischief he is ever searching,
Or shooting you some gas.

Front of Giles, Miss Martha Jacobs,
Sure thing a two-mile girl;
In music she's a peach,
In dancing she's a pearl.

Ah, ha! now 'tis Miss Ola Roberts,
The year's ambitious vamp,
For on every letter she does ne'er
Forget to invert the stamp.

Next on the stage, Miss Mace, Jeanette,
A likeness of Miss Ola,
In mathematics she's a bean,
In music only a victrola.

Behold in front of Miss Jeanette,
Miss Frances Wootton, we say
'Tis a cinch, a tennis fiend
Jolly well, all the day.

Last, not least, good, not best,
And true to the finis,
Miss Mary Montgomery, my word,
Who puts the "love" in Tennis.

(Thus endeth the Class of '21.)

A STORM PARTY

November 9th.—The members of the Senior Class gave Miss Susie Penn a delightful "Storm Party" Tuesday night. During the evening music was rendered on the piano and victrola, and games of various kinds were played. About ten o'clock, hot chocolate and wafers were served, followed by fruit. After a few more games the guests departed.

A PARTY FOR THE "BIG FOUR"

December 9th.—One of the most enjoyable events of the school session was a party at the Old Moose Hall, given by the R. H. S. Senior Girls in honor of the Senior Boys, Frank Giles, James Thompson, Burns Mims, Charles Jones and Burton Gwynn, who won the silver loving-cup in the class basket-ball series. During the evening various games and contests were enjoyed, after which refreshments consisting of fruit, salted peanuts, and tid-bits were served.

MISS MARTHA JACOBS, HOSTESS TO THE SENIOR CLASS

January 5th.—A delightful New Year's party was given by the Seniors at the home of Miss Martha Jacobs. The house was beautifully decorated in class colors of Green and White.

The guests arrived at eight thirty and were ushered into the library by Miss Martha Jacobs and Mrs. Douglas Jacobs. After various forms of entertainment, Mr. Minor Gwynn presented each Senior with a miniature diploma characteristic of each. After this hot chocolate and sandwiches and pickle were served. Every one reported a most happy evening. A number of invited guests were present, also.

A. N. S. CLUB ENTERTAINS

January 21st.—The A. N. S. Club held its regular meeting at the home of Miss Mary Montgomery on Friday evening. The happy hours passed all too soon, as the merry youths and maidens played or listened to the strains of the sweetest music. The hostess served a delicious salad course, followed by bonbons.

MISS ELSIE BENSON, HOSTESS TO SENIORS AND FACULTY

January 27th.—One of the season's most enjoyable functions was a party given to the Faculty and the Seniors of the High School on Friday evening at the home of Miss Elsie Benson. James Thompson was named the honor guest, the occasion being his birthday.

Miss Elsie Benson and James Thompson welcomed each guest at the door and invited them into the living room. Here a very delightful evening was spent in the playing of games dear to the heart of every real boy and girl, and in trying to unravel the mysteries of a "contest" in which James Thompson was most successful and was awarded the prize. The hostess, assisted by Supt. P. H. Gwynn, Jr., served punch, and at a table gay with the class colors and with the most attractive centerpiece of winter-blooming flowers, the Faculty and the Class of 1921 partook of a delicious salad course consisting of chicken salad, wafers, potato chips, sandwiches, pickle, stuffed dates, and hot chocolate. Dainty souvenirs in the shape of green baskets filled with white mints were presented each guest.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

February 18th.—Franklin Street School was the place of much gaiety from eight thirty to eleven thirty Friday evening, when the Juniors entertained the Seniors and High School Faculty at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet. The hall was beautifully decorated, the Senior Class colors of Green and White being used most artistically. All took part in different games until there was a call, "Come to the Banquet." In the long corridors of the school building the tables had been arranged, truly a feast to the eyes when first seen, resplendent in their streamers of green and white, beautiful with many flowers and soft lights. The place cards were in the form of four-leaf clovers with a rhyme suggestive of each leaf.

The Souvenir

Four dainty French (?) maids served the banquet in the following courses: grapefruit cocktail; salad course with coffee; green and white block ice-cream with cake. As pleasant reminders of the auspicious occasion, four-leaf clover, candy-filled boxes were given each guest.

Lawrence Watt was toastmaster. A toast was given to the Faculty by Miss Tempie Harris and responded to by Supt. P. H. Gwynn, Jr.; one to the Senior Basket-Ball Team by Miss Ruby Smith, responded to by Charles Jones; Lawrence Watt, President of the Class of '22, drank to the health of the Senior Class and was responded to by its President, Frank Giles.

The Junior-Senior banquet marks another milestone along the road marked "Class of '21." Already the approach of spring causes us to quake with dread and fear as final examination time draws nigh. But truly we "enjoy the day," or rather the night, at this, our joint banquet and we tender to the jolly Juniors our thanks and our wish for each and every one of them "a happy, studious, and triumphant Senior year."

There is a rumor that the Seniors are planning to present the play, "Green Stockings," ere many weeks elapse. Here's hoping.

Oh, That You Cared

If only that you cared,
If only that you dared,
To say as before,
As in days heretofore,
That you cared.

Those words seemed so sweet,
In the grey autumn nights,
When the hours seemed so fleet,
As you whispered my delight
That you cared.

While the moon sent its spell
Of love over us there,
While your lips did compel
These words in the air,
That you cared.

Oh, if you only cared!
Would save many a tear,
But now those words are spared,
Those whispered in my ear,
That you cared.

IN setting the type, printing, and binding this book, our object was not to see how quickly and cheaply we could produce the publication, but how well it could be done.

Our whole aim in this, as in all our work, is to give the greatest attention to all the details, and produce printing that will be a credit to the institutions from which the publications are issued. Our books will be just as good in the many years to come, when an annual is of greatest value, as they are to-day.
